Re: BENJAMIN "BUGSY" SIEGEL

Our employee [redacted] advised me on July 26, 1946, that he is rather well acquainted with [redacted] b7c

[redacted] is aware of the fact that [redacted] works for the FBI. In general conversations [redacted] has learned that [redacted] and recently [redacted] has been making trips to Las Vegas in connection with the construction of a hotel there which SIEGEL is interested in. [redacted]

I told [redacted] that it did not appear to be advisable for him to make this trip, as SIEGEL and his associates are very suspicious of any new people, and if they found out he was connected with the FBI no good could come of it. I told him to be very careful not to let [redacted] know that we are interested in SIEGEL, as to do so would put SIEGEL on his guard should [redacted] make any remark to this effect to SIEGEL. [redacted] doubts that [redacted] would of his own volition report anything to us that he knows of SIEGEL. He has no question as to [redacted] honesty; [redacted]

PRISONER X CINCINNATI IN LAS VEGAS

CINCINNATI has been attempting to bring more and more of his petty associates to Las Vegas to work

None of the men already in Las Vegas has ever been associated with any violence, to Informant's knowledge, but he is exceedingly worried about others that CINCINNATI wants to send to Las Vegas.

THE FLORIDA HOTEL

The new $3,000,000 Flamingo Hotel, presently under construction on the Las Vegas-Los Angeles highway by U. S. 1 has been discussed in reports submitted in this matter, in Crime Surveys of the Salt Lake City Field Division, and is recent memoranda submitted SINGEL put up $250,000.00 at first for a 37-1/2% interest in the hotel, but later put an additional $125,000.00 in the fund for a total investment of $375,000.00.

670
SINGEL is smart enough to think that he can operate the hotel profitably with his own element, but informant said that he will learn that he must have someone with a legitimate reputation to operate the hotel as his 'front'.

BUSINESS INTERESTS OF SIDNEY SINGEL IN LAS VEGAS

Informant stated that SIDNEY is a partner with SAMUEL CASIMIRO and JEFFERSON and LARRY LUKY is all of their business enterprises. In addition, they each own a one-fourth interest in all of the business interests in Las Vegas, Nevada, and he turns one-fourth of his proceeds from his business ventures over to them.

NEW YORK: SIDNEY, CASIMIRO, LUKY and LARRY control the Numbers racket in New York City.

PENNSYLVANIA and BALTIMORE: SIDNEY, CASIMIRO, LUKY and LARRY control the Numbers racket in Philadelphia and Baltimore. SIDNEY is merely the "front" and area manager for the others.

NEW JERSEY: SIDNEY, CASIMIRO, LUKY and LARRY control all numbers and other gambling in Newark. Again, SIDNEY is principally the front end runner for the other four.

SI GEL, CAT HUN, and LNU Y are also partners of racket boss in the state of New Jersey.

FLAIDA; SI GEL, CAT HUN, and LNU Y also own the race book in the Hollywood Beach Hotel and the Ocean Hotel, both in Hollywood, Florida.

SI GEL, CAT HUN, and LNU Y also formerly owned The Farm (formerly the Plantation) at Hollywood, Florida.

Information has already been set forth in previous memoranda to the effect that SI GEL, CAT HUN, and LNU Y own the Colonial Inn at Miami, Florida.

LOA: SI GEL, CAT HUN, and LNU Y, own the dog track at Council Bluffs, Iowa.

CHIEF: Informant said that LNU Y actually has nothing in California that "you can put your finger on". Although he is the recognized leader on the West Coast of all activities of New York, Chicago, Detroit, and other major cities and activities, they do not control gambling in the Los Angeles area. LNU Y likes California and has made his home there for several years for that reason. He does not want to become too involved in illegal activities in California because he is attempting to enjoy a bit of reputation there. He relies himself on the fact that he has never been convicted of a criminal offense of a major nature, and inasmuch as he is a felony conviction of bookmaking in Los Angeles about a year ago, he was convicted at that time with LNU Y and was fined. He says, however, that bookmaking is a felony in California.

CHIEF: LNU Y and CAT HUN do not actually control any gambling activities in the cities out, by agreement, work "hand in glove" with other racketeers. As previously reported, they have a working agreement with the Chicago element in Chicago, and informant feels that the Chicago element is getting out of its support from these men until it can again successfully function alone without their active support.

Informant stated that THE FORTUNA MAN ALWAYS been staunch supporters of the underworld activities of the Unione Sicilian, and that SINGEL is the only Jew who has held a position of high regard in the opinion of the other members. He does not know if SINGEL is actually a member of this group, but said that he has always worked closely with all of the "grease ball" members.

TERESA MARIA SINGEL

Informant stated that SINGEL'S wife, ETHEL KRACAKER SINGEL is presently in Reno, Nevada for the purpose of obtaining a divorce from SINGEL. This has also been previously reported.

After SINGEL'S wife left him, he sold his home for $95,000.00. As previously reported by both the Salt Lake City and Los Angeles Field Divisions, ETHEL YOUNG attempted to purchase the SINGEL home, but SINGEL does not like her and refused to sell the home to her, according to Informant.

Information to the effect that SIEBEL owns a home on Central Park West in New York City has already been reported. Informant advised that SIEBEL, while in New York City, frequents the Hollywood Ricost Office located on 46th or 47th Street just off Broadway. He can also be located at the JAY SALTON Commission Office in New York. This office handles and promotes gambling on baseball games, fights, and races.

In recent months SIEBEL's mistress has been VIRGINIA HILL, fabulous woman of mystery in Los Angeles. The Los Angeles Field Division has discussed HILL at length in their semi-annual crime survey memoranda, as having unlimited funds at her disposal. She recently gives very expensive parties and no one seems to know the source of her income.

SIEBEL frequently brings Hill to Las Vegas with him and also takes her to New York and Florida where she is openly reported as his mistress, SIEBEL has recently been living with Hill at her home in Westwood, Los Angeles. Informant does not know the address, SIEBEL has a new 1946 blue Buick Wildcat Convertible Coupe, license number unknown.

He retains room 401 permanently at the Hotel East Frontier, Las Vegas.

In the writer's memorandum of June 21, 1946, information was set out about the alleged activities of

It is suggested that this information also be furnished the Bureau immediately in view of the possibility of its being of interest to Assistant Director W. J. CUNNINGHAM in his investigation of the matter entitled "REACTIVATION OF THE COUNCIL ON - AN ALLIANCE INFORMATION; CRIME SURVEY", Bureau File No. 62-21403, and to the New York, Newark, Miami, San Diego, Chicago, and Los Angeles Field Divisions.

CRIME SURVEY

Dear Mr. Connelly:

Reference is made to my telephone calls on June 28, 1946 and July 1, 1946 to you and to the Los Angeles Office furnishing information relating primarily to BENJAMIN "BUGSY" SINGEL, which information was obtained in connection with our investigation in the case entitled "VICE CONDITIONS, Las Vegas, Nevada; RESEARCH MATTER".

The information contained in this communication was furnished to Special Agent .. a Resident Agent at Las Vegas, Nevada.

BENJAMIN "BUGSY" SINGEL, by the year 1931, because of his "brains", temper and ability to carry out threats, had assumed leadership of a group of then small-time hoodlums in New York. He had previously aligned himself with the underworld in the prohibition bootlegging racket and had climbed rapidly because of his ruthlessness and ability to handle men. About this time he associated himself with MAYER LANSKY and their gang skyrocketed into prominence and underworld respect as the "Bugs and Meyer Mob". SINGEL acquired his nickname of "BUGS" because he was regarded by his intimate acquaintances as insane along certain times.

Open gang warfare broke out among the New York gangs and the "Bugs and Meyer Mob" was responsible for the killing and removal of many powerful rival gangster figures. SINGEL and LANSKY shared the dictatorial powers of the gang but SINGEL was responsible for the terroristic practices of their group. They had many gunmen at their command and were motivated both by fear and because of the money and protection SINGEL and LANSKY could give them. The latter two were responsible for the "liquidation" of "MALEY" GORDON and, after that, their underworld prestige increased.

Re: REASSASSINATION OF THE LAMARCA GANG
RE C. INF. READING - CRIME LABS

In his regular Sunday afternoon radio broadcast on June 30, DREW PEARSON, newspaper columnist and radio commentator, reportedly announced that the attempt on the life of JAMES H. RAGAN, Sr. in Chicago was arranged at a meeting of the heads of the underworld from the entire country, which meeting was held in New York City on the eve of the Louis-Conn fight. PEARSON allegedly stated that the three principals responsible for the attempt on RAGAN'S life were hangers in the vicinity of Chicago at the time the assault took place. He reportedly named the three principals as FRANK COSTELLO and of New York and "Buddy" Simon of Las Vegas, Nevada.

SU 62-1128

These persons have not indicated to hotel employees just when they intend to leave Salt Lake City. However, they have had their car serviced (a New-car check up) at the Ken Garff Motor Company in Salt Lake City and the car is in readiness for travel.

Reference is made to my telephone conversation today with Mr. MOHR, and to my letter of July 9, 1946, outlining information obtained by

Re: MYER LANSKY

advised that on the early evening of July 9, 1946, LANSKY telephoned SINGEL from LANSKY'S suite at the El Rancho Vegas Hotel, SINGEL being either at his room at the Last Frontier or at the Las Vegas Club at the time. LANSKY asked SINGEL to drop over that evening for a meeting, and stated, "You and MONEY (meaning MOR SKIDWAY) and I can get together," to which SINGEL replied, "Just you and I. We don't need that --- around." LANSKY appeared somewhat abashed at SINGEL'S attitude and stated, "Well, all right. If you don't want MONEY along we will get along without him."
SINGEL then stated that they could get along better without MONEY, but SINGEL and LANSKY could make all the necessary decisions. Later SINGEL called LANSKY and insisted that the meeting be at SINGEL'S room at the Last Frontier Hotel, where SINGEL and LANSKY could talk together out on the terrace.

further advised that on July 9, 1946, LANSKY called his office in New York City and talked to someone there, identity unknown. LANSKY informed the unknown person that he (LANSKY), together with his son PAUL was going to Los Angeles Sunday morning (apparently meaning Sunday, July 14) and would stay at the Ambassador Hotel, and that he was "coming back here" the last of the month. (The information immediately above was furnished to the Bureau and Los Angeles by teletype on July 10, 1946.)

In this same conversation LANSKY told the unknown person that he was very much pleased with the progress of the Flamingo Hotel and after one look at it he believed that all of the money was actually going into the construction of the hotel. In his conversation he indicated he was disappointed that the hotel was being constructed at this time, as he had always felt it would have been better to have commenced building a year or two earlier due to the present shortage of materials and labor. He further remarked that it will be some time before they would have any money for the hotel.

From the records of the police station from New York City it was indicated to the informant that

On the late afternoon of July 10, 1948, both informed that SIKORSKI had suddenly decided he must return to Los Angeles immediately and probably on the Washington-Los Angeles flight, July 12, and that SIKORSKI would probably take a Western Airlines plane out of Las Vegas for Los Angeles at about 8:00 p.m. that evening. This information was immediately furnished by telephone to the Los Angeles office of the FBI in order that that office might be advised of SIKORSKI's arrival there. It was subsequently ascertained that SIKORSKI was able to obtain reservations on a plane leaving Las Vegas at 8:00 p.m. July 10, and that he actually left Las Vegas on that date.

MEMO FOR THE FILE:

Re: BENJAMIN "BUGS" SIEGEL
MISCELLANEOUS; INFORMATION CONCERNING;
CRIME SURVEY

At 8:45 a.m. today I spoke with [redacted] at the Bureau in the absence of Assistant Director ROSEN. I advised [redacted] that [redacted] at Los Angeles had informed us that in connection with the construction of the Flamingo Hotel in Las Vegas the construction had reached a point only where there were a few stakes in the ground when the Civilian Production Administration order freezing building was put into effect; that, thereafter, a sum of money was made available to [redacted] who, in turn, made money available to Senator PAT MC CARREN. Thereafter, an order came through permitting the construction of the Flamingo Hotel to go ahead.

[redacted]

I pointed out to [redacted] that I would recommend an open and thorough investigation of this matter on both the Bribery and Fraud Against the Government theory; that this would enable us to examine the books and records concerning the construction of the Flamingo Hotel; would permit us to examine witnesses under oath and we could trace back every cent of money that has been put into the construction of this Hotel. I said that besides possibly developing a violation through which we could put SIEGEL in jail, it would also have the effect of virtually bankrupting him and his associates if our investigation should result in the stoppage of construction.

I advised [redacted] that technical surveillances have indicated that SIEGEL in a conversation [redacted] stated that as of today they have $1,162,500 in the Flamingo Hotel and that they are trying to make a loan of $500,000 [redacted] and a $600,000 loan from a Utah Corporation. I also pointed out to [redacted] the front-page article in the LAS VEGAS TRIBUNE which criticized the construction of the Flamingo Hotel at a time when materials are needed for the construction of homes for veterans. I advised him that independently of our own investigation such a newspaper article might bring about an investigation either by ourselves or some other Government agency, and I felt that we should take the opportunity to move into the picture. I requested that the Bureau ascertain what the C.P.A. rules and regulations are and whether that agency has its own investigative branch or if we have jurisdiction. I said that we would have jurisdiction on Fraud Against the Government angle.

I advised [redacted] that in connection with this investigation, we would probably either have to have a Special Assistant to the Attorney General out here or would have to work with a U.S. Attorney because it would be a constant legal battle to secure the books and records and we would probably need subpoenas in order to demand the records. b7c

[redacted] inquired whether the technical installations were producing and I advised him that they are, pointing out that the information concerning the amount of money invested in the Flamingo Hotel and the information concerning the proposed loans was obtained from that source. [redacted] I said that we could not tell whether SIEGEL is guessing or whether he has some actual information.

On July 30, 1946 Special Agent [redacted] and the writer called on [redacted] and explained that the F.B.I. was building up its files and getting all possible background on BENJAMIN "BUGS" SIEGEL. [redacted] was told that SIEGEL was assuming more prominence in local and Western affairs and that undoubtedly considerable information concerning SIEGEL's activities would come to the attention [redacted] recalled that in 1939 the U.S. Customs Service had conducted an investigation concerning SIEGEL.

SIEGEL originally came to the attention of the Customs because of a cruise he took with [REDACTED] and others on a yacht, when crew trouble as well as the make-up of the passenger list caused the entire cruise to receive considerable publicity in the press and allegations existed that in addition to smuggling activities the cruise was intended to facilitate a meeting of hoodlums somewhere on the high seas. Supposedly some mobster hiding out in Mexico met the ship on which SIEGEL and the others were sailing.

[REDACTED] suggested that Agents contact [REDACTED] explaining that the F.B.I. was bringing its files up to date and ask his cooperation because [REDACTED] is positive that considerable background information on SIEGEL's activities can be obtained. [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] mentioned that he had received some information from a highly confidential source which was given to him in confidence, that he would make available at this time concerning SIEGEL, with the understanding that the Agents would treat it in the manner in which it was being given. He stated that this information was gossip in that he personally had no knowledge of the facts involved, nor could he vouch for the source of his information, but he was making the information available for what it is worth. In connection with the Flamingo Hotel, which SIEGEL and [REDACTED] are building in Las Vegas, Nevada, [REDACTED] mentioned that construction on this hotel had not gotten any further than "a few stakes being driven in the ground" when the freeze order regulating all commercial building under C.P.A. came into effect. When this order came through the Flamingo Hotel had not progressed far enough to qualify for the granting of a permit for its continuance.

I spoke with Special Agent [redacted] at Las Vegas this morning and advised him of the telephone conversation from BEN SIEGEL to [redacted] at Las Vegas and asked him what had developed at Las Vegas. [redacted] stated that the application of the Flamingo Hotel for gambling and liquor license had been denied by the Clark County Commissions. [redacted] said that this is apparently only a temporary denial and that [redacted] is charged with investigating applications for gambling and liquor licenses and will undoubtedly see to it that the Flamingo Hotel is granted this license. [redacted] also stated that [redacted]

[redacted] telephoned [redacted] from Los Angeles last midnight and told him of the developments here in Los Angeles and the conferences which were held with SIEGEL. This has apparently been quite a blow to SIEGEL and for the first time he is will to take advice from others. SIEGEL is going to Las Vegas Wednesday, August 7, 1946, in order to personally appear before the County Commissioners in an effort to secure this license.

Dear Sir:

Enclosed is a photograph of VIRGINIA HILL, current mistress of BENJAMIN "BUGS" SIEGEL. This picture is being forwarded for your use in any future investigations involving this person.

It is not known whether VIRGINIA HILL looks as she does in this photograph because this is obviously a motion picture test shot and represents a "glamour" pose.

This picture was made in 1942 by Samuel Goldwyn Studios.

Special Agent in Charge W. J. MURPHY telephoned from San Diego at 9:15 this morning. He said that [redacted] is at Del Mar with GEORGE RAFT and an individual named [redacted]. RAFT is living by himself and [redacted] is in a cottage at the Del Mar Hotel temporarily. [redacted] is insisting on a private room. The situation has been such that no technical or microphone surveillance has been possible due to the fact that [redacted] is moving from one place to another and until he is settled in a room it will be impossible to institute surveillances. Mr. MURPHY said that [redacted] is apparently going to make book on behalf of SIEGEL and his associates. He said that [redacted] and RAFT had an unusually good day at the track yesterday and that RAFT is making advances toward [redacted]. He said that the agents saw [redacted] in the dining room of the Del Mar Hotel last night and she was wearing a large quantity of diamonds. [redacted]

b7c

Mr. MURPHY said that there are unconfirmed rumors around Del Mar that there are an unusually large number of hoodlums down from Los Angeles, Cleveland, Chicago and other points and that there are to be some fixed races.

Mr. MURPHY mentioned that [redacted]

[redacted] is living at the Riviera Hotel at Long Beach. Mr. MURPHY said that [redacted] is unusually friendly with [redacted]

Mr. MURPHY made the suggestion that we have [redacted] and I advised Mr. MURPHY that our experience with [redacted] in connection with this investigation had not been very satisfactory. I told Mr. MURPHY that it would be all right to have [redacted] make only general inquiries from [redacted] concerning the general racketeering setup but that no unusual interest should be displayed in "BUGS" SIEGEL for fear that the word might get back to SIEGEL.

MISCELLANEOUS; INFORMATION CONCERNING;
CRIME SURVEY

Dear Sir:

Reference is made to your letter of August 9, 1946, requesting information concerning the divorce reportedly obtained by ESTHER SIEGEL from BENJAMIN SIEGEL at Reno, Nevada.

The divorce records of the Washoe County Clerk's Office, Reno, under #108261, as made available [redacted] reflect the following information: b7c

On August 3, 1946, ESTELLE L. SIEGEL was granted a divorce from BENJAMIN SIEGEL. The complaint recited that they were married in New York City, New York, on January 28, 1928, and that there are two minor children, issue of the marriage. [redacted]

The complaint also recited that a property settlement had been agreed upon per a contract made June 20, 1946, and the plaintiff offered this as exhibit "A" in the proceedings, and asked that the terms thereof be adopted in the divorce decree. The complaint alleged that the defendant had been guilty of extreme cruelty, mental in nature, and the prayer of the complaint was that an absolute divorce be granted, with the custody of the children given to the plaintiff, but with a right of visitation by the defendant "at all reasonable and reasonable times." Mrs. SIEGEL was represented by DONNELL RICHARDS, a Reno attorney. b7c

The file contained an "Appearance and Waiver" signed by BENJAMIN SIEGEL and acknowledged at Los Angeles, California, July 2, 1946, before ANNA TAYLOR, Notary Public, in which he in effect consented to a default decree.

The decree granted an absolute divorce, gave the custody of the children to the mother, with a right of visitation as set out in the complaint. The property agreement was approved and fully adopted by the court.

HOLLYWOOD RUNAROUND

By RADIE HARRIS

When Jule Styne and Sammy Cahn were first called to Metro to write the words and music to "It Happened in Brooklyn," they said to producer Jack Cummings, "Let's not make the same mistake with this picture as they made here with 'Anchors Aweigh.'"

Cummings looked at the boys as if they had just escaped from the nearest asylum. "The same mistake? Don't you know that every day truckloads ride in the front gate to unload millions of dollars this picture is coining all over the country?"

"Oh, we approve of that kind of 'take' (minus the mis). What we mean is, we don't want to make the mistake of having Frank Sinatra and Kathryn Grayson in the same picture and not have them sing at least one number together." Which explains why in "It Happened in Brooklyn," Sinatra and Grayson will duet an aria from "La Giovanni."

The other p.m. Styne and Cahn played and sang me the entire score for the picture, and in the words of Schnozzle himself, "It's colossal." It's a cinch you will be hearing "I Believe," "I'm So Lucky to Be Loved By You," and "I Love the Brooklyn Bridge" on the Hit Parade, but the one I got the biggest bang out of was the specialty number, "As Long as It Comes from the Heart," with which Jimmie and Frankie will tear down the house. As part of the patter, Jimmie asks Frank, "What makes Caruso the greatest singer of the day?"

"His voice?" asks Sinatra.

Whereupon Jimmie nods back, "It helped!"
